

Call for Papers

Applied Ethics:

The Second International Conference in Sapporo

22-25 November 2007, Sapporo, Japan

Center for Applied Ethics and Philosophy (CAEP)
Graduate Program in Applied Ethics (GPAE)
Faculty of Letters, Hokkaido University (Sapporo, Japan)

We are delighted to announce the Second International Conference on Applied Ethics on 22-25th of November 2007 in Hokkaido University, Sapporo, Japan. We are pleased to call for papers on the following areas and topics:

Meta/Normative Ethics, Bioethics, Engineering Ethics, Ethics of Science and Technology, Information Ethics, Environmental Ethics, Social Ethics (Politics, Economics and Business)

Confirmed keynote speakers include:

Peter Schaber (University of Zurich), Lee Shui Chuen (National Taiwan Central University), Andrew Light (University of Washington), Wo Guosheng (Peking University)

Those participants who wish to give a paper are asked to submit a 300-500 word abstract for a paper of 20 minute presentation. Please send a paper abstract by Wednesday 5th of September, and a full paper by Wednesday 31st of October. All accepted papers are considered for publication in the printed and electronic formats. For further details and abstract/paper submissions, please feel free to contact Kohji Ishihara or Shunzo Majima.

Conference Chair: Takahiko Nitta (CAEP, Director)

Program Chair: Kohji Ishihara (GPAE, Program Director): ishihara@let.hokudai.ac.jp

Coordinator: Shunzo Majima (GPAE, Program Coordinator): majima@let.hokudai.ac.jp

Abstract/paper submission: gpae@let.hokudai.ac.jp

Program Committee: Koji Nakatogawa, Teruo Utsunomiya, Nobuo Kurata, Takahide Kashiwaba and Shunzo Majima