

17th Environmental Study Tour to China(Beijing and Xi'an) Call for Participation

Date : 2016/3/4 (FRI.) ~ 3/11 (FRI.)
Place to visit: China (Beijing • Xi'an)

This tour is targeting for undergraduate students, graduate students including international exchange students. The objective of the tour is to understand the environmental problems in developing countries and exchanging opinions with researchers and participants. The study tour in 2016 will take you to China where you can see the rapid urbanization, agricultural/fishery based livelihood in rural areas, and World Cultural Heritages. The tour will offers the opportunities for visit various environment-related facilities and sites, to interact with the researchers from the Chinese universities, and to meet the students and faculty members from the other Japanese universities for networking.

3/4 (FRI.)

Depart from Japan
Arrive at Beijing

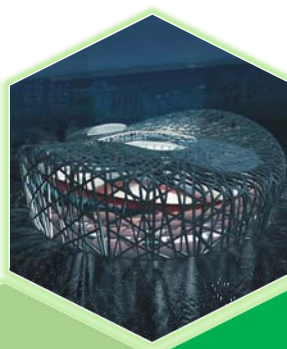

3/5 (SAT.)

Visit to Xiaohongmen
WWTP & Tian'an men square

3/6 (SUN.)

Visit to the Great Wall
& the Olympic Green

3/7 (MON.)

International
workshop at THU & CAU

3/8 (TUE.)

Move to Xi'an, live at
Tian yu kai lai hotel

3/9 (WED.)

International
workshop at XAUAT.
Visit to Environment-
related Facilities

3/10 (THU.)

Visit to the Terracotta
Army Museum

3/11 (FRI.)

Arrive at Japan

No. of participants : 20

Eligibility: Students of National College, Undergraduate students,
Graduate students, faculty and Institute members

Cost: Flight (100,000-130,000 JPY), Accident insurance (Approx. 7,000 JPY), Accommodation (Approx. 57,000 JPY), Food cost etc.
(Approx. 20,000 JPY)

Deadline for Application: 2015.12.24 (THU.) Extended to 2016.1.31(SUN.)

Contact: GSGES, Kyoto University E-mail: oshita@epsehost.env.kyoto-u.ac.jp

TEL/FAX: 075-383-3336/3338

This study tour will be carried out with a joint study tour for Strategic Program for Fostering Environmental Leaders and JSPS Core to Core program of GSGES, Kyoto University.

